A holy place of Christian values that are cherished

All Are Welcome: The Campaign for the Blessed John XXIII Religious Education Center

From the Children of St. Anne School and St. John Neumann Religious Education Program:

What is your vision of the new religious education center?

A lot more books in the Library

Open gym night for everyone

A new cafeteria so we have a place to eat

Better desks in our classrooms

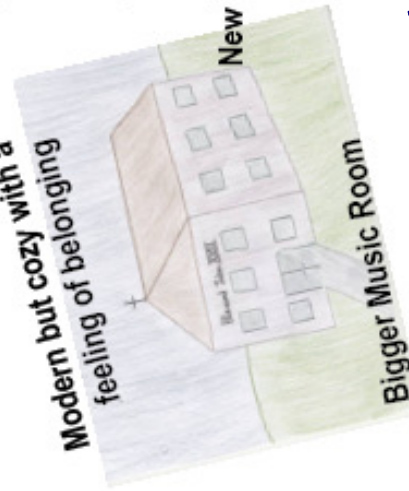

New Science Lab

Keep Jesus at the center!

It means we might have a bigger playground with grass

Modern but cozy with a feeling of belonging

Strong community of teachers, students and parents

New Uniforms

Bigger Music Room

Movie night once a month

Better heating and cooling and bigger classrooms

New Gym

A safe fun environment to learn about my faith

Saint John Neumann Roman Catholic Church
